.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to for the reasons and circumstances stated in the accompanying affidavit it is prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issued order, direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declare proceeding of 2nd respondent in S.R.No.49/2003 dated 27-7-2004 as illegal, arbitrary, and violative of Art.14 and 19(g) and 300-A of the Constitution of India and violative of principles of natural justice and contrary to the provisions of A.P.S.A.L.T.Regulation and consequentially direct the respondents not to evict the petitioner from the schedule land situated in R.S.No.40 an extent of Ac.3.00 cts of Jainvarigudem Village, Buttaigudem Mandal, West Godavari District

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.P.R.K.AMERANDRA KUMAR

Counsel for the Respondents: G.P. FOR TRIBAL WELFARE.

The Court made the following ORDER:

Against the ejectment order passed by the second respondent in S.R.No.49 of 2003 dated 27.07.2004, the petitioner filed W.P.No.13625 of 2004, which was disposed of at the admission stage on 04.08.2004, granting liberty to the petitioner to file an appeal within a period of one week from the date of disposal of the writ petition and status quo was ordered for a period of three weeks. In compliance of the said direction, the petitioner filed an appeal on 07.08.2004 before the first respondent along with an application for grant of stay. But, so far, no orders have been passed by the first respondent. As the status quo order passed by this Court is only for a period of three weeks, which expires on 25.08.2004, the petitioner again moved this Court by way of filing the present writ petition.

In view of the status quo order passed by this Court, while disposing the W.P.No.13625 of 2004, the petitioner, if she is in possession of the land, till the disposal of the appeal, she shall not be dispossessed from the same.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of with the above direction. No costs.
